Future Events

Our fall "In the Dirt" lecture series has begun with our first lecture presented by Sarah Miller. Gregg and I will present lectures, as well as Dr. Michele Williams. This is the first time Sarah has participated in our series and we are looking forward to another successful series. I have also been presenting a lecture series at the Osceola County Library, as well as the Ft. Pierce Library. I will be presenting a new series in the Spring at the Stuart Library in Martin County.

Gregg and I will be presenting papers at the upcoming Southeastern Archaeological Conference in Lexington, KY and we are already planning paper presentations for conferences next year.

I have been developing the new course on burial laws in Florida and recently met with Dr. Dave Dickle and Kevin Porter to flesh out aspects of the course content. I hope to complete the course by the FAS meetings in 2011 so that it can be presented by all FPAN staff throughout the state.
